

Sambodh Shiva Stuti

॥ सम्बोध शिव ॥

ङ्कराभरण राग, आदि ताल

| sambodha śiva ||

śaṅkarābharāṇa, rāga ādi tāla

जय जय श्री सम्बोधनाथ। सदा सम्बोधन निरत गुरुवर। श्री नीलकण्ठ सदा जय ॥ पल्लवी ॥
निर्विकार मृड निगमाकार। शम्भो त्रिलोक जीवाधार। देहि कैवल्यं सदाशिव हर ॥ अनुपल्लवी ॥
कानन वास काललिंगभास। मोहन हरित्पादपावृत ॥ कालमझू क्षेत्रस्थित शिव। शक्तिसमेत
करुणापाङ्ग। वेदघोषप्रिय घोरपापहर। निजाद्वैतरूपप्रकाश ॥ चरण ॥

jaya jaya śrī sambodhanātha | sadā sambodhana nirata guruvara |
śrī nīlakaṅṭha sadā jaya | | pallavī | |
nirvikāra mṛḍa nigamākāra | śambhoo triloka jīvādhāra |
deihī kaivalyaṁ sadāśīava hara | | anupallavī | |
kānana vāsa kālalingabhāsa | mohana haritpādapāvṛta | |
kālamajhū kṣetrasthita śiva | śaktisameta karuṇāpāṅga |
vedaghoṣapriya ghorapāpahara | nijādvaitarūpaprakāśa | | caraṇa | |

SAMBODH ARANYA SHIVA STUTI

English Translation

Forever victory to Revered Lord of Sambodh,
O Great Teacher, engaged in teaching excellently;
The Blue-Throated One, Forever victory to You.

You, the one who never changes, are the very personification of the Veda.
O Shiva, the basis of life force in the three worlds, please grant moksha to me, O Shiva the Auspicious One.

Sambodha Shiva, the forest dweller, manifest in the form of a black Linga with beautiful, tall trees surrounding you.
O Shiva, the Auspicious One, established in the holy city of Kalamazoo, along with your consort, Shakti, whose side glances are so full of compassion.

You are our inspiration and are very fond of the Veda mantras we chant.
You destroy our great sins which we commit.
Your effulgent form has broken the barrier of differences.
Hence you appear in your subtle form, the Linga.
Victory again and again, revered Lord of Sambodh!