are pleased to announce a

Kailash - Manasarovar Yatra

~ Dear Friends ~

Swamiji himself will be leading the Yatra (pilgrimage), and I expect it to be an experience of a lifetime.

Details about the program are available on our websites: www.sambodh.org and www.sambodh.us (see the home page).

The size of the group has been capped at 25 people on a first-come first-serve basis. I therefore request you to please register for the yatra early to avoid disappointment.

The cost of the trip from New Delhi back to New Delhi is Rs 1 lac for Indian passport holders and $2500 for American passport holders. The cost maybe revised once the airlines announce airfares for August 2010.

An amount of Rs 15,000 or $500 is payable as booking advance at the time of reservation. Reservations close on April 30, 2010.
