Sambodh Center for Human Excellence

In the quiet woodlands of Kalamazoo, MI, Sambodh Center for Human Excellence (SCHE) is quietly emerging as a major facility in the United States for the teaching of Vedanta, Meditation, Ayurveda and Yoga fostered by the Dharmic vision: the unity of all, and the unity of all spiritual paths. SCHE serves as the headquarters of The Sambodh Society, Inc. and is maintained by devotees, donors and friends.

Under the inspired leadership of Swami Bodhananda, Sambodh Society and SCHE aspire to nurture a community of spiritual seekers who 1) work selflessly for the spiritual uplift of humanity; 2) learn from the best of both Eastern and Western traditions; and, 3) are steeped in Vedanta, a vision which sees the world as one family and that all paths lead to the same Truth.

Spreading the message of Vedanta and universal wisdom, Swami Bodhananda makes annual visits to devotees in Michigan's major cities and numerous other U.S. locations, including: New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Connecticut, San Antonio, Chicago, Atlanta, San Francisco, Dallas, Los Angeles, Houston, and Miami.

The Sambodh Society, Inc. seeks your generous support and enthusiastic involvement - physically, materially and spiritually - for maximum success of this spiritual endeavor begun by Swamiji. Along with your participation in Sambodh activities and the annual yagna venerating Sambodh Aranya Shiva, we request your help in passing along the news of Sambodh to your friends and acquaintances. Help us to arrange new venues for Swamiji's programs. With your prayers, participation, good will and support, the Sambodh mission will flourish to benefit humanity.

SWAMI BODHANANDA-JI'S MESSAGE

LORD SHIVA and His consort Devi are the patron deities of Sambodh Aranya and the Sambodh Center for Human Excellence. The union of Shiva (Consciousness) and Shakti (Energy) gives birth to and sustains this universe of beings and events. Shiva without Shakti has no drive, and Shakti without Shiva has no direction. Together Shiva and Shakti superintend the world's affairs. To quote Kalidasa, the poet, "Jagada Pitaraau Vande Parvati Paramesvarau" - "We salute the cosmic parents, Paramesvara and Parvati."

SINCE THE VEDIC TIMES it has been a practice to perform rituals to propitiate Shiva and Shakti for world peace, prosperity, and spiritual well-being. When human efforts are found wanting, divine intervention is sought. By propitiating these deities we, in turn, balance our wishes and drives with cosmic energies and are nourished and protected. This is the whole rationale of a sacrifice. Thus, rituals work both spiritually and materially, bringing inner peace and bliss along with outer prosperity and harmony. Those who believe in a higher power controlling human destiny accept the Vedic injunctions to perform rituals for satisfying human needs and fulfilling human destiny.

HINDUS DEVELOPED many forms of rituals over a period of time to propitiate different deities, the most important being Ganesha, Lakshmi, Shiva, Surya and Vishnu. The Ganesha Homa removes hurdles in our pursuits, and the Lakshmi Homa confers wealth and success in our endeavors. The Navagraha Homa protects one from evil eyes (jealousy) and malevolent planets (forces outside our control). The Sudarshana and Dhanvantari Homas are addressed to Lord Vishnu, the former for overcoming enemies and the latter for good health. The Parvati Kalyan Homa is performed for obtaining a husband or a wife of one's desire.

THE RUDRABHISHEKAM AND CHANDI HOMA are the main events of our August 6-7, 2011 program. Various substances valuable to human sustenance are offered to Lord Shiva, to cool his spiritual tejas, persuading Him to open His third eye of wisdom and bless His devotees. For the ardent Shiva devotee, this ritual is a most auspicious event. Ultimately, when we realize the purpose of our existence, the grace we seek from Shiva-Shakti is liberation from worldly desires and sorrow.

THE CHANDI HOMA invokes the energizing power of Shiva. Chandi guarantees all prosperity and material well-being and grants the seeker with smooth spiritual progress. Together, these two most celebrated Vedic rituals not only purify the participants but bestow upon the devotee all success, health, happiness, and, ultimately, final release from worldly thralldom.

"May everyone prosper, be healthy, happy, and live harmoniously!"

With my Blessings and Love,
Swami Bodhananda
